Roanoke, Va., July 5—Waile none of the officers of the Norfolk and Western Railway knew anything of the voting among its employes to strike for higher waves, a prominent labor leader here announced to-day that the vote was being taken over the entire system, and that the sentiment was overwhelmingly in favor of the strike Recently the labor leaders and officials held conferences here and the terms offered by the company were submitted to the men.

The earnings for June fell many thousands short of the amount, and it is believed that the monthly statements just issued was the signal for the vote being taken by the men. Every man employed on the system, outside of office men. conductors, engineers and telegraphers, are in the federation.

Joseph explored the contents of one with his jack-knife, and when he reached the core there was a terrific explosion. The boy was blown twenty-live feet and terribly torn and mangled. The other two boys were uncenscious and badly burned when found.
